How does it work?

At registration, you will be given an information on your starting position and instructions on how one should move to or wait for the next meeting;

When the bell rings, each Business Speed Meeting – couple will have 8 minutes for the meeting: 4 minutes per person to present oneself, one's company and its products to another participant.

After 4 Minutes a small ring will signalise the beginning for the presentation of the other participant from the Business Speed -couple.

After 8 minutes, the bell will ring again, and one of the participants should move to the next position or greet next counterpart

After 10-12 meetings, at the Cocktail you will have the chance to meet other participants. The List will be available on the entrance.
